

If you had a subscription to DSL Extreme's TrueSTREAM Internet Service that started between March 1, 2015, and July 14, 2017, You could get money from a Settlement.

Chinitz v. Telecom Evolutions, LLC, Case No. 18STCV08068 (Cal. Super. Ct. Los Angeles Cty.)

What is the lawsuit about?

The lawsuit alleges that the "fiber optic" statements that Telecom Evolutions, LLC, and Quality Speaks LLC (together, "DSL Extreme") made in the marketing of their TrueSTREAM internet service were misleading. DSL Extreme denies any and all wrongdoing of any kind whatsoever, and denies any liability to Plaintiffs and to any class members. The Court has not decided who is right.

A Settlement has been proposed to resolve this class action lawsuit. You may be eligible to participate in the Settlement if you had TrueSTREAM internet service from DSL Extreme that began between March 1, 2015, and July 14, 2017.

How do I make a claim?

You may make a Claim for Settlement relief by (1) submitting a Claim Form online at www.fiberopticsettlement.com; (2) downloading a Claim Form from the website and mailing it to the Settlement Administrator at Chinitz v. Telecom Evolutions, c/o Kroll Settlement Administration, P.O. Box 5324, New York, NY 10150-5324; or (3) completing and mailing the Claim Form accompanying a postcard you may have received in the mail from the Settlement Administrator. YOU MUST SUBMIT A TIMELY, VALID CLAIM FORM TO RECEIVE A PAYMENT UNDER THE SETTLEMENT.

The deadline to file a Claim is December 21, 2022. If you make a Claim, you give up the right to sue separately for damages.

The Settlement: As part of the Settlement, DSL Extreme may be required to pay service awards to the Class Representatives; attorneys' fees and costs to the lawyers who brought the lawsuit; and the costs of Class Notice and the Settlement Administration Process. Plaintiffs will request service awards up to $3,000 in the aggregate as well as up to $300,000 in attorneys' fees and costs. You may find additional details at www.fiberopticsettlement.com or by calling 1-833-620-3580.

Do I have a lawyer?

Yes, if you are a Settlement Class Member. The Court appointed Reese LLP and Halunen Law as counsel for the Settlement Class, to be paid by DSL Extreme. Or you may appear through an attorney at your own expense.

What are your other options?

If you do not want to be legally bound by the Settlement, you must exclude yourself by December 21, 2022. If you do not exclude yourself, you will release any claims you may have, as more fully described in the Settlement Agreement, available at www.fiberopticsettlement.com. You may remain a Settlement Class Member and object to the Settlement by (1) mailing a written objection to the Settlement Administrator by December 21, 2022, or (2) attending the Final Approval Hearing and asking to speak regarding your objection. The website, www.fiberopticsettlement.com, explains how to exclude yourself or object.

Final Approval Hearing. The Court has scheduled a Final Approval Hearing for January 20, 2023, at 11:00 a.m. PT at the Superior Court of California, Los Angeles County, before the Honorable Amy D. Hogue, Department 7, at 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012. At that time, the Court will decide whether to give Final Approval to the Settlement. The Court will hear from any Settlement Class Member who attends the Final Approval Hearing and asks to speak. The hearing date may be changed without notice. It is not necessary for you to appear at this hearing, but you may attend at your own expense. Use of face masks in the courthouse is strongly recommended. Please visit www.lacourt.org for more information and the latest updates regarding use of face masks in Los Angeles County courthouses.
